The account(s) is a Joint Account (G.S. 54-109.58): We do do not elect to create the Right of Survivorship in this account.

We understand that by establishing a joint account under the provisions of North Carolina General Statute 54-109.58 that: (1) the Credit Union may pay the money in the account to, or on the order of, any person named in the account unless we have directed that withdrawals require more than one signature; and (2) if we elect to create the right of survivorship in the account, that upon the death of one joint owner the money remaining in the account will belong to the surviving joint owners and will not pass by inheritance to the heirs of the deceased joint owner or be controlled by the deceased joint owner's will.

Joint Owner: If required by the Credit Union, removal of a joint account owner requires consent of all owners, and we will hold Credit Union harmless for actions regarding account access. The removed joint account owner(s) relinquishes ownership interest including any membership share in the account(s) set forth on the reverse side. This relinquishment does not affect my/our obligation on any loan accounts.
